public, the Royalists more timidly hoped to sit on both. The gayest gathering was by the Communists, to celebrate the anniversary of the 18th of March; shrewd folks discount this, however, as a Bonapartist dodge, as the guests had plenty of champagne and proved how they relished it by comic songs, ballads in honour of the red flag and the good times coming, and all institutions had been abolished. One classic female recited an ode to the 'Amistad' between a bull, stop and a jump: a journal was printed in few-faw-um red ink, in honour of 'the day we celebrate,' which was overdoing the thing, as the last time that was tried on it leaked out of a trial that a grand Prussian baroness had supplied the cash. The authorities very wisely viewed all the antics as of equal importance, and treated them with a like profound indifference.

Paris has at last what she sadly needed, a system of correct time. The plan, as in use in Vienna for three years, consists in having a central clock regulated by the sun, and so worked by a reserve of compressed air, that every minute a valve opens, impels the hands of the clock to advance that space of time as well as all other clocks in connection with the mother impulsion. Now this latter is so slight, that the machinery established, and the branching (5) wires, only as thick as those for bells, and laid in the public sewers, can set in motion every clock that could be suspended on all the walls of the city. The clock has only a dial, with a blue face and white figures, a pair of hands and a second wheel with 60 notches: there is no winding, cleaning, or repairing necessary. It can neither go too fast nor too slow, and the charge for supplying the correct time with dial is one sou per day, with 40 per cent. reduction, as two or more dials are subscribed for.

ST FROM PARIS.

March 25th.

Our Ambassador has left the Chancery since that time according to the Emperor's order. On the other French Ambassador arrived on this coldness will not be considered in the Bois de St. Germain in 1814-15. The fact is, the Government went out of the Hartmann affair to Russia; the man was arrested and his private secretary searched; then he ended in prison awaiting the criminality being despatched. Petersburgh after his arrest in Sister Anne, the Carthusian, nothing serious coming, no opinion was getting except the complaint detention, was liberated. If Russia the evidence now out and not try the extradition of John Bull! The French, the self-satisfied lavished on by Russia, remember the partiality she displayed in 1870-71, and they have come aware, that the cause of invasion in 1875, and that the influence, as the legend of Gorkhachoff, and the Bismarck has pronounced him the excommunication.

Our staff of inspectors is to be enlarged, ostensibly to minutely attend the education given in con- monastic schools. By the just voted, the five catho- 'universities' from the last century, and their 'alumni' instead of examined by diplomas by a jury of their own professors, as of the State, must hence- forward be before the examiners of national University.

A discussion of the articles General Tariff proceeds, the clauses voted are pro- tect. In commercial freedom, may be anticipated France only maintain her unwar- next to Spain and Russia compared with other European but will in many respects below these states. The rail at the Americans for their grain, meat, imple- and some notions have but one discovery of America; but this last drawback cannot be remedied, Jonathan has acted well in reminding M. Gambetta is said to have a collection of neoclassical in the world—potatoes like the emperor of Russia and the Alps are dull the papers kill a paragraph. He is as the Pont-Neuf; he had a misfortune to be attacked by dunces, when everybody had dunces of theirs. Every morning he extolled the blessings of liberty, less its 1870-71 bene- diction, less its speedy re- d on the rains of the Re-

Church and convent of Santa Catalina.

This ancient and well-known church has lately undergone a thorough repair and is now quite an architectural ornament to the city, as it stands at the corners of Calles San Martin and Temple.

On Thursday last, the 28th of April, a grand 'facion' took place to commemorate the centenary, as on that day one hundred years ago, 1780, this time-honoured convent was founded.

From an early hour a concourse of the most respectable families visited the church, and before the time appointed for the High Mass and sermon, even the vestibule was filled to excess, scarcely allowing standing room to those whose devo- tion took them thither.

We remarked one thing, however, which is really a disgrace to the Municipality or to those who it may concern, namely that the 'vereda' or foot-path on the side of the church in Calle San Martin, from the corner of Temple to the corner of Cordova, is in such a neglected state as to be dangerous to foot passengers; and we saw numbers of respectable old ladies struggling along in imminent danger of breaking their bones on this most disgraceful sidewalk.

We beg of our native colleagues to call the attention of the authorities to this neglected portion of the city. Surely there is in Buenos Ayres no 'vox populi' or such a state of things would not be permitted to exist.

THE IRISH RELIEF FUND.

79 Calle Maipú, B. Ayres, 1st May, 1880.

To the Right Hon. B. Dwyer Grey, Lord Mayor of Dublin.

My Lord Mayor,

We had the pleasure of addressing you last on the 20th March, with Bill of Exchange for £1000 in aid of the Irish Relief Fund, and we now beg to trouble you with a further remittance of £500 9s 8d (eight hundred and two pounds nine shillings and eight pence) making a total of £2500 9s 8d, remitted by this Committee, to your Lordship's care, to date.

We have had the honor to receive the official acknowledgments of our first two remittances, dated the 22nd and 26th March respectively, and awaiting similar replies to our letter of the 20th March and to the present.

Your Lordship's very obdt. servants,

Michael Carroll, Edward Casey, Trustees of the Fund.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Sunday was a wet day, and as cold as Charity, although Charity is not very cold in Buenos Ayres, rather the reverse. The 'Nacional' review of Palermo and all other outdoor amusements were sadly interfered with by the rain; nevertheless the Volunteers held their field day, and some people drove out in closed carriages to look at them. In town the day was as quiet as a Quakers' meeting, but at night the theatres were well filled, especially the Colon Theatre, where Madame Durand made her re-appearance.

Thursday next will be a strict holiday—the 'Feast of the Ascension.' Our Packet Edition for the 18th of March; shrewd folks discount this, however, as a Bonapartist dodge, as the guests had plenty of champagne and proved how they relished it by comic songs, ballads in honour of the red flag and the good times coming, and all institutions had been abolished.

One classic female recited an ode to the 'Amistad' between a bull, stop and a jump: a journal was printed in few-faw-um red ink, in honour of 'the day we celebrate,' which was overdoing the thing, as the last time that was tried on it leaked out of a trial that a grand Prussian baroness had supplied the cash. He is as the Pont-Neuf; he had a misfortune to be attacked by dunces, when everybody had dunces of theirs. Every morning he extolled the blessings of liberty, less its 1870-71 bene- diction, less its speedy re- d on the rains of the Re-

Church and convent of Santa Catalina.

This ancient and well-known church has lately undergone a thorough repair and is now quite an architectural ornament to the city, as it stands at the corners of Calles San Martin and Temple.

On Thursday last, the 28th of April, a grand 'facion' took place to commemorate the centenary, as on that day one hundred years ago, 1780, this time-honoured convent was founded.

From an early hour a concourse of the most respectable families visited the church, and before the time appointed for the High Mass and sermon, even the vestibule was filled to excess, scarcely allowing standing room to those whose devo- tion took them thither.

We remarked one thing, however, which is really a disgrace to the Municipality or to those who it may concern, namely that the 'vereda' or foot-path on the side of the church in Calle San Martin, from the corner of Temple to the corner of Cordova, is in such a neglected state as to be dangerous to foot passengers; and we saw numbers of respectable old ladies struggling along in imminent danger of breaking their bones on this most disgraceful sidewalk.

We beg of our native colleagues to call the attention of the authorities to this neglected portion of the city. Surely there is in Buenos Ayres no 'vox populi' or such a state of things would not be permitted to exist.

THE IRISH RELIEF FUND.

79 Calle Maipú, B. Ayres, 1st May, 1880.

To the Right Hon. B. Dwyer Grey, Lord Mayor of Dublin.

My Lord Mayor,

We had the pleasure of addressing you last on the 20th March, with Bill of Exchange for £1000 in aid of the Irish Relief Fund, and we now beg to trouble you with a further remittance of £500 9s 8d (eight hundred and two pounds nine shillings and eight pence) making a total of £2500 9s 8d, remitted by this Committee, to your Lordship's care, to date.

We have had the honor to receive the official acknowledgments of our first two remittances, dated the 22nd and 26th March respectively, and awaiting similar replies to our letter of the 20th March and to the present.

Your Lordship's very obdt. servants,

Michael Carroll, Edward Casey, Trustees of the Fund.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Sunday was a wet day, and as cold as Charity, although Charity is not very cold in Buenos Ayres, rather the reverse. The 'Nacional' review of Palermo and all other outdoor amusements were sadly interfered with by the rain; nevertheless the Volunteers held their field day, and some people drove out in closed carriages to look at them. In town the day was as quiet as a Quakers' meeting, but at night the theatres were well filled, especially the Colon Theatre, where Madame Durand made her re-appearance.

Thursday next will be a strict holiday—the 'Feast of the Ascension.' Our Packet Edition for the 18th of March; shrewd folks discount this, however, as a Bonapartist dodge, as the guests had plenty of champagne and proved how they relished it by comic songs, ballads in honour of the red flag and the good times coming, and all institutions had been abolished.

One classic female recited an ode to the 'Amistad' between a bull, stop and a jump: a journal was printed in few-faw-um red ink, in honour of 'the day we celebrate,' which was overdoing the thing, as the last time that was tried on it leaked out of a trial that a grand Prussian baroness had supplied the cash. The authorities very wisely viewed all the antics as of equal importance, and treated them with a like profound indifference.

Paris has at last what she sadly needed, a system of correct time. The plan, as in use in Vienna for three years, consists in having a central clock regulated by the sun, and so worked by a reserve of compressed air, that every minute a valve opens, impels the hands of the clock to advance that space of time as well as all other clocks in connection with the mother impulsion. Now this latter is so slight, that the machinery established, and the branching (5) wires, only as thick as those for bells, and laid in the public sewers, can set in motion every clock that could be suspended on all the walls of the city. The clock has only a dial, with a blue face and white figures, a pair of hands and a second wheel with 60 notches: there is no winding, cleaning, or repairing necessary. It can neither go too fast nor too slow, and the charge for supplying the correct time with dial is one sou per day, with 40 per cent. reduction, as two or more dials are subscribed for.

Our staff of inspectors is to be enlarged, ostensibly to minutely attend the education given in con- monastic schools. By the just voted, the five catho- 'universities' from the last century, and their 'alumni' instead of examined by diplomas by a jury of their own professors, as of the State, must hence- forward be before the examiners of national University.

A discussion of the articles General Tariff proceeds, the clauses voted are pro- tect. In commercial freedom, may be anticipated France only maintain her unwar- next to Spain and Russia compared with other European but will in many respects below these states. The rail at the Americans for their grain, meat, imple- and some notions have but one discovery of America; but this last drawback cannot be remedied, Jonathan has acted well in reminding M. Gambetta is said to have a collection of neoclassical in the world—potatoes like the emperor of Russia and the Alps are dull the papers kill a paragraph. He is as the Pont-Neuf; he had a misfortune to be attacked by dunces, when everybody had dunces of theirs. Every morning he extolled the blessings of liberty, less its 1870-71 bene- diction, less its speedy re- d on the rains of the Re-

Church and convent of Santa Catalina.

The political excitement yesterday was increased by the warlike speech attributed to General Rosas at Rosario. The Bolsa appears to have paid but little attention to it, and many people consider that the telegraph, as it often does, has exaggerated. There is talk in commercial circles of a monster petition to the President of the Republic, Governor Tejedor and General Rosas, to try, for the sake of the country, to agree on some step that will save it from civil war.

We feel much pleasure in saluting our veteran colleague El Nacional on the completion of its 28th year. The Nacional, in spite of its numerous evening colleagues, has become a necessity of Buenos Ayres existence, and we hope it may continue to be so for many years to come.

We also feel it a duty to return the courteous salute of the Porteño, which has recently changed editors and its political opinions.

The telegrams about the bombardment of Callao are most distressing. Great damage done. One of the first shells that fell in the town blew the most fashionable tailor in the place into little bits, and when the Peruvians sent out a torpedo boat, by some mismanagement it blew its own crew up and did not injure the enemy.

The dramatic performance at the Politeama to-night promises to be specially attractive. The variety of other amusements is something unprecedented at fates in B. Aires.

Another sensation has turned up at Montevideo in connection with the famous Dr. Lapido's will case. It appears that the old woman who swore that the testator was her natural son only did it to oblige a friend, (and perhaps herself a little) as she was only his stepmother. What a charming old lady!

Mr. Orsetti, the rising explorer, has proposed to the National Government to superintend an expedition to the South Pole! The bare idea of such a trip is enough to freeze one's marrow this winter.

The Rev. James Smith will preach at the Scotch Church, Chascomus, on Sunday next, at 12 o'clock. There will be morning and evening service in the Scotch Church here as usual.

We hear from Rosario that they are expecting a visit, there from H.M.S. Elk.

We have been favoured with a list of the cases treated in Dr. Lacrosse's famous Water Cure establishment in Calle Piedad in the 7 months ending 31st March last. The proportion of cures is quite wonderful, alike in rheumatism, neuralgia, skin diseases, chest complaints, indigestion, etc.; out of 28 cases of paralysis, 21 were cured and 4 much improved. This speaks volumes for Dr. Lacrosse's system and the ability with which it is applied.

Just after the railway inauguration party left Tucuman last week there was a brisk shower of cartloads of cattle. The hospitable inhabitants did all they could to induce their visitors to wait for the event, but the latter pleaded a previous engagement.

The news from the far West is that the winter has set in unusually early in the Cordillera, and that terrible storms have been experienced there lately. Some weather prophets expect a very severe winter in the River Plate this year.

Prado of Peru, Latorre of Montevideo, and now Daza of Bolivia. All these South American ex-presidents have left their respective countries lately, it may be for years, and it may be for ever! The latest West Coast papers say that Daza took £50,000 stg. with him to Paris.

Not one single operation in Cudulas was recorded during ring-time, but prices may be quoted at about 85, or higher.

March attendance has been bestowed on the recent leading articles in the Nacion, which evince a moderation of tone and impartiality of spirit, unfortunately too rare 'hoy en dia' in our local press. They imitate the wisdom and convenience of respective compromise, and a due submission to the authorities that be general opinion has also most emphatically pronounced itself as content in the preservation of peace, and we thus see large sellers at 90.00 for the end of the current month, and all time prices weaker than those for cash.
